The story of a single dog

(One)

Once upon a time, there was a very cute Wang Xingren who was called a single dog because he was single for too long. This single dog couldn't stand the show of love around him, so he ran away from home with the bone in his hand, thinking: I must find true love too. So he began to travel around the world. The reason for bringing the bones is because he loves to eat, and the other is because this cute Wang Xingren once heard a hypocritical saying: If you like someone, you are willing to share your favorite food with her.

(two)

Wang Xingren soon met a rabbit. Rabbits are cute things, and soon Wang Xingren likes this little white rabbit. Then he gave all the bones he had brought to the rabbit. The rabbit blinked his eyes and asked,

"Why do you give me so many bones?" Wang Xingren said, "Because I like these bones the most." The rabbit tasted the bones. , Said: "These bones are not delicious at all, but since you gave me so many bones, then I will give you some carrots." Wang Xingren tasted carrots and thought: What is this carrot? Ah, my bones are delicious, I, I... can you ask the rabbit to get my bones back. Thinking about it, I gave it to others. Wang Xingren's thin-skinned and embarrassed to take it back, so he continued on the road with carrots.

Wang Xingren soon met the giraffe. The giraffe is cool and majestic, and soon Wang Xingren worshipped the giraffe. But he had no bones and didn't know how to talk to the giraffe, so he silently accompanied the giraffe. Whether it is sunny or rainy, Wang Xingren will accompany the giraffe until he catches a cold and has a fever. Later, the weather was good one day. Wang Xingren thought it was time to say something to the giraffe. Then he raised his head to look at the giraffe, but was dazzled by the sun. He rolled on the spot, and finally slowly came over and took a peek at the giraffe, only to find that the giraffe had never noticed him. He thought to himself that the giraffe was tall and cold, and he had to raise his head every day to see the giraffe. He would definitely get cervical spondylosis, so he took a mouthful of unmoved carrots and continued on the journey.

It's not that no one likes Wang Xingren. For example, a little fox. The little fox secretly followed Wang Xingren for several times, and took advantage of Wang Xingren's rest and gave him a cart of grapes he had stolen to Wang Xingren. Wang Xingren thought that the little fox was so sincere, so let's accept it. The little fox was very happy to see Wang Xingren accepted these, because she was so happy that she didn't notice that Wang Xingren had gone far. Wang Xingren tasted the grapes and thought: What is this grape, ah, ah, or my bones are delicious, why did I give all the bones to the rabbit? No, I will cry for a while. The little fox thought to himself: Hahahaha, the Wang star took my grapes, he must still like me la la la la la, I must find him.

(Fives)

Wang Xingren met the cats. Wang Xingren thought that I finally met someone who was shorter than me and I could bully others. Then Wang Xingren fled, and then the cat was finally with a person called the little vest. Wang Xingren encountered a moth that was fighting the fire. He said to the moth: "The moth is a fire, you will die if you pounce on it." Fei said, "I know." Wang Xingren shook his head and did not persuade him, thinking that he had once been with someone like this. Wang Xingren met another gray rabbit. The rabbit saw him carrying a cart of carrots and sticking to Wang Xingren. Wang Xingren watched the rabbit walk all the way, so he gave all the carrots to the rabbit. Wang Xingren thought to himself: I bought these carrots with bones. I don't like them anyway. It's better to give them to those who like them. Hahaha relaxed. The rabbit thought: This person is so kind to me. Then moved in a mess.

This Wang Xingren crossed the mountains and crossed the river, crossed the mountains and ridges, loved and been loved, was hurt and hurt others without knowingly, and then this Wang Xingren went home dejectedly and met another Wang Xingren. The other Wang Xingren has a car of bones. He thinks this car of bones is very familiar, so he asked her: "Where did your car of bones come from." She said, "Others don't understand the taste of bones, but I do. "The little fox didn't find the Wang Xingren, so he couldn't find it; the little gray rabbit didn't wait for the Wang Xingren, so he couldn't wait. The giraffe didn't care about Wang Xingren because she was not looking for him; Little White Rabbit did not like Wang Xingren because she didn't like bones. There is nothing fair or unfair. You have fought moths to fire, you have been overcoming obstacles, you have been dismissed, and you have been dismissive of others. You have loved and been loved; you have been comforted and comforted, the world has not treated you particularly badly. Only after you stumble can you understand that the people you are waiting for are the ones who understand you.
